

January 2013 Newsletter

Happy 2013 and welcome to the first newsletter from Please The Palate! 2012 was our full year in business, and an extremely busy one at that! From events to festivals to writing assignments, Please The Palate spent the year eating, drinking, traveling and sharing these experiences via our blog. As we begin a new year of exploration, you may be looking for new places to please your palate and perhaps some of our finds will do just that!

EATING

New restaurants open every week. At times it's hard to keep up with all the choices. Here are some highlights from the ones that pleased our palates in 2012!
